

Relative pronominer 2

(henførende stedord)

---

1. The volunteers, whose enthusiasm was obvious, finished the work quickly.
2. The musicians who / that we heard yesterday have played together for many years.
3. Parents whose children do well in school usually consider themselves fortunate.
4. Here is a message to the owner of the car whose alarm has just gone off...
5. The swimmer to whom the prize was awarded<sup>1</sup> had an impressive record.
6. My son, who I visited last week, told me that he was taking a holiday soon.
7. The engineers who / that designed the building received an award.
8. The townspeople, whose pride in their community was well-known, raised enough money to build a new town hall.
9. The window which / that is open is the kitchen window.
10. The girl who / that recited the poem is my niece.
11. The woman to whom we were introduced was quite helpful.
12. The book which / that you read is the best book by that author.
13. The Pacific Ocean, which may have been crossed by raft during the Stone Age, is the world's largest ocean.
14. His mother, who he visited frequently, ran her own business.
15. The boy, who was friendly and intelligent, soon found work.
16. Her husband, to whom she also told the story, was just as surprised as I was.
17. The pictures which / that were taken in Algeria were very striking.
18. The newspaper to which they subscribed<sup>2</sup> was delivered regularly.
19. The story which / that you just heard is true.
20. Who was the last person to whom you gave a gift?
21. The key which / that opens this door is difficult to turn.

---

<sup>1</sup> tildelt

<sup>2</sup> abonnerede på