Nogle sætninger kan aldrig stå i ing-form, fordi de udtrykker noget, der altid gentager sig - en evig sandhed:

- The moon circles round the Earth
- Spring follows winter
- It costs a lot of money to travel to America

Verberne love and hate kan også vanskeligt stå i ing-form, fordi der er tale om nogle grundlæggende følelser, der ikke ændrer sig fra sekund til sekund:

I love warm summer days

I hate snakes

McDonald's tillader sig dog at bruge sloganet "I'm loving it!". Det er ikke sprogligt korrekt, men i reklamer bruges alle midler for at tiltrække sig opmærksomhed...
