

Word Classes for Advanced Learners 2

Highlight all adjectives (tillægsord) in the text

Underline as many adverbs (biord) as you can find

Adverbs are e.g. quickly, sadly, here, there, out, now, yesterday, always, very, much, why, not...

1 Once upon a time there was a dear little girl who was loved by
2 everyone who looked at her. Her grandmother gave her a little cap
3 of red velvet, which suited her so well that she would always wear it,
4 so she was called Little Red Riding Hood.

5 One day her mother said to her, "Come, here is a piece of cake and a bottle of wine. Take
6 them to your grandmother. She is ill and weak and they will make her feel good. Set out
7 before it gets hot, and when you are going, walk nicely and quietly and do not run off the
8 path, or you may fall and break the bottle, and then your grandmother will get nothing."
9 "I will take great care", she said to her mother, and gave her hand on it.

10 The grandmother lived in the wood, about one mile from the small village, and just as Little
11 Red Riding Hood entered the wood, a big wolf met her. She did not know what a wicked
12 creature he was, and was not afraid of him.

13 - "Good-day, Little Red Riding Hood," the wolf said excessively friendly.

14 - "Thank you kindly, wolf."

15 - "Where are you going so early, Little Red Riding Hood?"

16 - "To my grandmother's."

17 - "What have you got in your small basket?"

18 - "Cake and wine. Yesterday was baking-day, so poor sick grandmother is to have some 19 delicious food, to make her stronger."

20 - "Where does your grandmother live?"

21 - "About one mile farther on in the wood. Her house stands under the three large oak-trees.
22 You surely must know it," replied Little Red Riding Hood kindly.

23 The wolf thought to himself, "What a tender young creature. She will be better to eat than 24 the old woman. I must act craftily, so as to catch both." So he walked for a short time by the 25 side of the girl, and then he said, "See how pretty the flowers are here. Why do you not look
26 around? I believe, too, that you do not hear how sweetly the little birds are singing. You walk 27 gravely along as if you were going to school, while everything out here in the wood is 28 merry."

29 Little Red Riding Hood raised her eyes slowly, and when she saw the sunbeams dancing here
30 and there through the trees, and pretty flowers growing everywhere, she thought, suppose I
31 take grandmother a fresh bunch of flowers. That would please her very much. It is so early in 32 the day that I shall still get there in good time. And so she ran from the path into the wood
33 to look for flowers. And whenever she had picked one, she fancied that she saw a still 34 prettier one and ran after it, and so got deeper and deeper into the wood.

Adapted from <https://americanliterature.com/>